Reflections

The year is 537 B.C.

The place is Jerusalem.

In this year, the Israelites returned from exile in Babylon. After 50 years or more they returned to find that everything had changed and the country they left or had heard of in stories from their elders was still in the hands of their enemies.

The city walls have been torn down and buildings had been looted and the Temple of Solomon was destroyed. The Babylonians had stripped all the wealth in gold and silver.

The old men, who were children when they left, remembered the old days when the Temple was one of the wonders of the ancient world, which housed the Ark of the Covenant.

They knew deep down that this new temple would never be the same; it would be smaller and most of the things of yesteryear were gone. This realisation broke their hearts and they wept bitterly.

On the other hand, the young people could not remember the old days, but they could see that a new day of opportunity had dawned for them and they embraced it wholeheartedly! And so together they worked hard to rebuild, some lamenting that it would not be the same, while others revelling in their newly found freedom with all the possibilities which that brought.

In the rarely read book of Ezra, the story takes us through the reestablishment of worship, which was of utmost importance for all the people and the words from Psalm 136 were used to celebrate: "for his love endures forever".

For young and for old, each could say them and celebrate, each with their own responses of faith and life and challenge, so that together each could worship in that new place; some cheering in joy and some weeping for what was lost, but each still praising God.

Fourteen years ago, when we made the final decision to build the Centre, there was an equal mixture of worship and celebration and the shedding of tears. Some could remember a time, long before, and there was a sense that things might be lost.

Younger people had no memory or experience of what had been. For them the future was something unhindered by the past. However, each together still worshipped and shared faith. Our past, present and future defines us. We should not fear the past, nor let our bad experience have the final word, but allow every experience to shape us for the good, in the here and now.

The year is 2019 AD. The place is Marchmont.

As we look to the future once more, there will naturally be a mixture of all the same emotions and a few more as well, as we make the decision to build, later in the Autumn. We are at that catch 22 situation where we are ready to build, but we have to wait for the final funding to be secured. We do not build on ruins, but on good foundations, so like the people of Ezra's time, let us together celebrate what we have, look forward to what we will have and do so worshipping God and saying together: "for his love endures forever".

Karen K Campbell

GENERAL ASSEMBLY 2019

The General Assembly of the Church of Scotland 2019 has been one to remember and it is hoped that the changes which will gradually filter down to congregational level will ensure the survival of the Church and meet the needs of future generations.

Life and Work have produced a very informative supplement and you are encouraged to read it and see where the future lies for the whole church. MSG is a part of this future and our further development will help us to play our part in the future and not live in the past.

(The full article is available in hard copy for you to read on the Information table in the Church Centre or can be downloaded on <https://www.lifeandwork.org/resources/general-assembly-supplement>)

A RADICAL ASSEMBLY

The 2019 General Assembly of the Church of Scotland opened with a reminder that its decisions could 'shape the future of the Church for years to come' ; and closed with the Lord High Commissioner, the Duke of Buccleuch, saying someone had described it as the most significant Assembly since the Union in 1929.

The Assembly accepted three reports that between them have the potential to radically reshape the Church of Scotland, at every level from the local to the national and the General Assembly itself. The overall thrust of the plans is devolution of decision making and resources from the centre to reorganised and re-energised regional and local structures, with an emphasis on equipping churches for mission in their local context.

- Up to £25m to be spent on projects aimed at church growth, with particular emphasis on church planting
- 100 new worshipping communities to be established
- Focus on engaging with people under 40
- Cost of central administration to be cut by up to 30%: four councils to be merged into two
- Number of Scottish presbyteries to be reduced from 43 to about 12, focused on supporting local congregations in their ministry and mission
- Networks, hubs and other new local church structures to be developed
- Kirk Sessions to be reduced in size and focused on 'leadership and strategic decision-making'
- Decision-making and resources to be devolved from the central administration to regional and local levels
- No congregation to pay more to the centre after next year until new arrangements are agreed
- Land and buildings plan to focus on 'well equipped spaces in the right places'. Money from sale of redundant buildings to be shared between congregations
- Improved training and support for all ministry and leadership roles
- General Assembly to be made smaller
- Encouragement of a season of 'prayer and preparation' across the Church from September to December 2019

CHURCH FAMILY & PARISH NEWS

Rev Karen Campbell, in her role as National Chaplain to Legion Scotland, led the service for the D Day commemorations held at the French Institute in Edinburgh. Several veterans in attendance were presented with the Knight of the Legion d'Honneur Cross which was presented by the Consul General on behalf of the President of France. ( This is the highest French Order of Merit for Military and Civil Endeavours). The service can be viewed on Legion Scotland's Facebook page.

We say a very fond farewell to William Watt, our student Minister for this past year, as he moves on to his probationary placement at Greyfriars Kirk and wish him every blessing in the future.

We go on to say a warm welcome to Julia Catto who will commence her probationary period with us in September.

We give thanks for the life and service of:

Ena Nicolson, a member of the congregation and formerly of Homeross House, died on the 6th June 2019.

Development & Fundraising News

The Development Committee has received the Building Warrant from Edinburgh City Council and the Quantity Surveyor has the tender documents ready to issue at our convenience.

As part of the Annual Stated Meeting on the 16th June there will be a walk-through of the planned development to refresh your memories followed by a brief presentation of the accounts and coffee.

Our preliminary application to the Heritage Lottery Fund has been accepted and a project officer has been appointed to work with Cornerstone and ourselves to ensure a successful result. The next window of application is in August and we would expect to hear the results in November.

In the meantime we have a lot of work to do to meet the heritage element of our application and a series of booklets are in the process of being produced with plans for a series of events such as talks on our silver, windows, organ recitals and tours of the Graveyard. Look out for "MONDAYS AT MSG"

Cornerstone will also be sending out a raft of applications for amount over £10k - £100k. Our medium level fundraising team have 15 applications ready to go out so fingers crossed for a successful outcome.

The Treasurer has banked £1144 to the end of May and June will see this figure more than double by the efforts of the low level team with monies still to come in from various corners.

Look out for our beautiful and unique fundraising totaliser painted by Ruth Thomas, our "Artist in Residence", with butterflies and leaves representing different amounts

The next event is our Summer Fundraising Ceilidh on 22nd June with Ceilidh Kids. Tickets are on sale in the centre and cost; £22 for family ticket (2 adults and up to 3 kids)
£8 for adults and £4 for under 12's

Please come and support this event and get to know our lovely users and customers. Lots of fun and games for all!!

News From The Kirk Session

The next stage of our GDPR program will take place shortly with Elders receiving a copy of the letter which will be sent to all members to establish whether all the information which is held on our members is fair and accurate.

Safeguarding training is to be organised later in the month for those who have a disclosure or PVG. The Co-ordinator invited as many people as possible to attend this.

Essential maintenance on the Manse was approved by the Kirk Session.

A new group "The Lighthouse Group" for seniors is planned for the autumn with games, talks and music. Another group offering bereavement support called "MSG CARES" is under way and will also start in the Autumn. More details in the September Shuttle.

Kinross Parish Church UK's No.1 Traidcraft Seller

In 2005, our own Pat Munro started a Traidcraft stall in the newly refurbished Kinross Parish Church. She claimed two cupboards in the coffee room next to the church, and every Sunday worshippers were tempted by Divine Chocolate and other Traidcraft products. Traidcraft are the pioneers in the UK of fairly traded goods, supporting small scale farmers and workers throughout the world.

Pat got together a small team to develop Traidcraft. When Pat and John left Kinross in 2008 to come to Edinburgh and Marchmont St Giles, the weekly sales were modest, but a beginning had been made. Eleven years on, Kinross Parish Church Traidcraft has grown until this year, they had the highest sales in the United Kingdom.

In 2014, sales were about £8,000, and now over £21,000. The team distribute Traidcraft products to four local churches, cafe, small businesses, and primary and high schools. There is a dedicated team, from the youngest who started in Primary 7, up to people of unspecified age!

Pat had the vision fourteen years ago and from that beginning, the venture has grown to be a great success. Congratulations to Pat and to Kinross Parish Church.

A NIGHT OF GLITZ AND GLAMOUR

Butterflies cafe was nominated by its fabulous customers as a finalist in the "Best Cafe in Edinburgh" category in the Scottish Cafe Awards 2019 at the Glasgow Marriott Hotel. The Minister came in her capacity as Director along with Judith and Nicci and a good night was made great by the announcement that we'd won the "Highly Commended" award for our category - we had gone not expecting to win anything so we were absolutely delighted.

Our supporting evidence was written to take the judges on a journey with us and this was used to make their final decision and is now available in the Church Centre.

A huge Thank You goes to Louise Ogilvy for nominating us in the first place and our friends in Singing4fun (Parkinsons Scotland) wrote a song for us which they performed for us in harmony.

Toddler Time Thursday 25th July, 9.30 - 11.30am

To keep the families of little children going over the summer break, drop in for the usual Thursday toys, friendship & fun with mini-makes and activities culminating with story & songs. Families with older children are welcome too!

Summer Sunday's at MSG from 10am

During July & August this summer the welcome mat will be out and the coffee on from 10am for fellowship before the 10.30am service. There will be a children's programme during the 10.30 service with Pew Projects for older ones and side chapel area for littlies. All welcome! Look forward to seeing you and hearing about your holidays!

Meanwhile...

We have reached an end of a season for *Toddler Church. After a few years of worshipping mid-week with toddlers and their adults, we are pressing pause on this format. Thank you to all the families that have spent time with us over the years; many of whom we continue to see at other times in the café, toddler group, Sundays and holidays. Look out for what comes next!

Read, Plan, Pray! Not the title of a well-known book or film, but my aim for the summer season. I hope to carve out some time in the next couple of months (in between holiday club preparation & delivery and September) to hone and plan some new ventures for children, young people and families.

We meet many families throughout the weeks and months through our groups and the café as well as our regular congregation and we hope we can continue to weave their interests and needs into the life & work of our church family. It is team effort. Here's to what comes next!

For our prayers:

On the other side of the school holidays, there will be young people starting school, high school and university. Let us pray for them and their families at this exciting but perhaps nervous time of transition and new beginnings.

Have a lovely summer and send us a postcard!

Bettina

MEADOWS FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

As mentioned in the May issue, we took a pitch at the Meadows Festival again. Due to the amount of high quality items it was decided to have a 'pre-sale' sale in the Church Centre and this raised £800 and a further £700 was made at the Meadows Festival. The weather was a bit of a worry this year but the worst of the rain stayed away although a windy Sunday morning made life a bit difficult - the stall next to us gave up when their tent blew over ours.!

A huge Thank you to everyone who helped, donated or supported this venture in any way. There are still some items to be auctioned and our cautious estimate of £1,000 has been well and truly surpassed. Lots of charity shops in Morningside have also benefited as we dropped a couple of boxes of at each one.

CHRISTIAN AID 2019

On behalf of the Christian Aid Committee I wish to extend our thanks, once again, for the generosity of the the people who kindly donated their time and donations of money to a very worthwhile cause.

The final total received for the Coffee Morning was £542.00 which was superbly organised by Frances Brown. Many thanks to Nancy Jeffries for her donation of beautiful hand-made cards: Fiona Brown for the compilation of the Quiz, winner as yet to be announced, and mouth-watering raffle prizes, all of these things helped to boost the total to £542.

Once again an enormous thank-you to all who delivered the envelopes door-to-door. £679 was the amount received from the envelopes which although considerably less than previous years, will be warmly received by Christian Aid.

Our thanks also must go to the German Speaking Congregation Church for their generosity of time and a special thanks to the masseur, who I believed was relieving painful necks.

A cheque for the monies received from the Soup, Bread and Cheese lunch on the 3rd March and Christian Aid Week will be sent to Christian Aid Week.

Thank you to all who participated in raising money.

AROUND THE AISLES

Butterflies Cafe will close for holidays on Friday 19th July for 3 weeks. Thank you to all our fantastic customers and volunteers for making Butterflies Cafe such a success. We heard recently from a family "This is my favourite place in the whole of Edinburgh"

"All Day Afternoon Tea" is proving to be very popular and the Cafe would be delighted to see you - why not bring a friend or two?? It is not necessary to book but if you let us know you are coming on a certain day then we will have it all ready for you. A word of warning - Fridays are very busy and noisy all day so it is suggested that you choose another day.

Butterflies Plus will finish for the session on the 26th June and re-commence on Wednesday 4th September. We look forward to seeing you then and once again thank you to the many volunteers who help make these lunches such a success.

The Welcome Leaflet has been recently updated with a list of classes and contact details. Spanish classes for pre-schoolers has started and we now have classes in Mandarin for wee ones.

Tap-into-It sessions have proved very successful and Mike and his team will be taking some time off in July - check with the Office for holiday dates.

New Pilates Barre classes have commenced and are very busy.

Items for Richmond Craigmillar are constantly coming in and they are so grateful for our support. Please remember to buy an item for the box the next time you go shopping and make sure that food items have reasonable 'best before' dates eg at least 4 weeks left as we don't always manage to deliver every week.

Guild News - Under the theme of Companions on the Road, the Guild will have its first "Welcome back" meeting of the 2019-20 session at 7.30 on Tuesday 10th September. All welcome!

Key Register - do you have a set of keys for MSG? Do you need to have a set of keys? If so please let Carey, our Administrator, know so that she can update the Key Register. Over £1,000 is invested in all our sets of keys and it is important that she can account for them all. It is also necessary for Insurance purposes that we can account for them.

Room Bookings - if you need to hold a meeting in MSG please make sure that you book your space through the office. The Centre is now so busy that it is not always possible to accommodate people who turn up expecting to find space. The office is not available for meetings so to avoid disappointment please get in touch with Carey in advance.

Summer Maintenance - the centre is being so well used this summer that there is no opportunity to close for a week so maintenance will have to be done around all our bookings. Dave Alexander, our Caretaker, will have a list of jobs needing done over the summer so please get in touch with him to organise dates and times if you are available to help - the more the merrier!!

Exhibition of Art - Butterflies Cafe and Marchmont St Giles Church Centre. Art from children's illustrated books, infant art, educational art and general art by Ruth Thomas will be on display soon at Butterflies Cafe and in the Church Centre. Some original art, posters and cards will be available to buy.

Parking - please remember that there is no parking allowed on the church premises unless you have permission. Please note too that parking across at Kilgraston Court is restricted to residents only, a rude awakening awaits anyone who transgresses!

Trip to Lindisfarne- it was good and it was happy despite the weather. Folk from the local churches worshipped together, laughed together, enjoyed the time and agreed they must do it again

The Shuttle is taking a break over the summer holidays and will be back in September. Please consider writing an article for it as it is YOUR magazine and if you find something interesting then it is likely many of our readers will as well.

THE MOFFAT TRENCH AT THE GORDON HIGHLANDERS MUSEUM

At the opening of the Moffat Trench on the 25th March 2019 at the Gordon Highlanders' Museum, Aberdeen.

The roots of the new trench at the Gordon Highlanders Museum truly stretch all the way back to the First World War. The Moffat Trench is named after an officer in the Gordon Highlanders, Colonel Frank Moffat, who was awarded the DSO for his actions in 8/10th Battalion on 30th August 1917 during the battle of Ypres.

Colonel Moffat survived the war and his daughter, Dr Margaret Moffat who is a member of Marchmont St Giles', was a volunteer in the museum for many years. She wanted the Aberdeen site to mark in some way the sacrifice made by men such as her father and her wider family and was also very aware that her dad took a great interest in the education of young people.

Although the construction of the trench has been funded by a number of benefactors, the first and most generous was Dr Moffat. Museum Chief executive Bryan Snelling said "without her assistance, we would not have been able to proceed. We both saw the trench not just as a fitting memorial to the Gordon Highlanders of the Great War, but as a way of ensuring that today's schoolchildren could continue to learn from the lessons of the past."

Trenches were named after all sorts of things, including officers. Calling ours the Moffat Trench harks back to this tradition.

Dr Moffat said, " My father did not want future generations to go through what his had experienced. Building this trench will help children connect with the past. I hope it will renew in them a determination not to repeat the mistakes of the past."

Rt Rev Colin Sinclair, Moderator, shares a reflection on the 75th anniversary of D Day

Rt Rev Colin Sinclair, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, shares a reflection on the 75th anniversary of D-Day.

"One of the D-Day veterans in my congregation shared how, as a young soldier, he was in one of the boats heading for the beaches not knowing whether he would be alive or dead by the end of the day.

"Suddenly, across the water he heard a soldier singing the 23rd Psalm. As he sang 'The Lord is my Shepherd' the song was taken up by others in his boat and spread to other boats around. In that psalm they found courage and strength.

"Today we remember those events 75 years ago and give thanks for the remarkable courage and self-sacrifice of our forces and those of our allies as they risked everything to liberate France and bring the Second World War to a close."

And finally....

Do Not Ask Me to Remember

Do not ask me to remember,
Don't try to make me understand,
Let me rest and know you're with me,
Kiss my cheek and hold my hand.
I'm confused beyond your concept,
I am sad and sick and lost.
All I know is that I need you
To be with me at all cost.
Do not lose your patience with me,
Do not scold or curse or cry.
I can't help the way I'm acting,
Can't be different though I try.
Just remember that I need you,
That the best of me is gone,
Please don't fail to stand beside me,
Love me 'til my life is done.
